Day is done, gone the sun
from the lakes, from the hills,
from the sky.
All is well, safely rest.
God is near.

Twenty-Third Psalm

*The Lord is my shepherd;
I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down
in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul:
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His names sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil:
for thou art with me; thy rod and
thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow
me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell
in the house of the Lord forever.*

One night a man had a dream. He dreamed he was walking along the beach with the LORD, Across the sky flashed scenes from his life.

For each scene, he noticed two sets of footprints in the sand, one belonging to him, and the other to the LORD. When the last scene of his life flashed before him, he looked back at the footprints in the sand. He noticed that many times along the path of his life there was only one set of footprints. He also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest times in his life.

This really bothered him and he questioned the LORD about it. "LORD, you said that once I decided to follow you, you'd walk with me all the way. But I have noticed that during the most troublesome times in my life, there is only one set of footprints, I don't understand why you would leave me when I needed you most." The LORD replied, "My precious child, I love you and I would never leave you. During your times of trial and suffering, when you see only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you."

A photograph of a beach at sunset. The sky is a mix of blue and orange, with the sun low on the horizon. The ocean waves are breaking on the shore. In the foreground, a series of footprints are visible in the dark sand, leading away from the viewer towards the water.
